A Good
Way
to Live

<sup>5</sup> Trust in the LORD with all
thine heart; and
lean not unto
thine own
understanding.

<sup>6</sup> In all thy ways acknowledge
him, and he shall direct thy paths.

<sup>7</sup> Be not wise in
thine own eyes:
fear the LORD,

and depart
from evil.

<sup>8</sup> It shall be
health to thy navel, and
marrow to thy bones.

It may seem simple.

Maybe for some, it
is. For many of us,
however, always trusting in the Lord with ALL
of our hearts rather than ever
depending on
our own
understanding
does not happen
naturally.

Acknowledging God
in every single one
of our actions does not happen all
of the time.

It is, nonetheless,
good advice.

The words are
that one should:
· completely trust
in the Lord, · acknowledge
God in all actions,

. not be wise in
one's own mind,
. revere the Lord,
and
. get away from evil.

Those are guidelines
with a proposed
benefit.

The application of that way of thinking, and
practicing carries

an expectation of
deeply sustaining
well-being—“...health to thy
navel, and marrow
to thy bones”.

Generally
speaking, health
to the navel and
marrow to the
bones suggests an ongoing spiritually
nutritious

sustaining and
strength.

Following this principle is just a very sensible
and good way
to live.
